Low-key Dasara off to a traditional start

Mysuru, Oct. 7 (RK&BCT)- Former Chief Minister Somanahalli Mallaiah Krishna (S.M. Krishna) inaugurated the 412th Dasara (Nada Habba) atop the Chamundi Hill in the auspicious Tula Lagna between 8.15 am and 8.45 am today. The inauguration signalled the start of Sharannavarathri which will conclude with Vijayadashami on Oct. 15.

The Agra Puja (first ritual) was performed to Goddess Sri Chamundeshwari where Krishna and Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai showered flower petals on Mahishasura Mardhini idol placed on a flower-bedecked silver chariot amidst chanting of mantras by priests. Later, Krishna lit the traditional lamp.

Public entry to Chamundi Hill since early this morning was banned owing to crowd-control measures and the presence of VVIPs. Public were allowed only after dignitaries descended the Hill. Though touted as a low-key Dasara, there were more than 40 VIPs on the stage including Ministers, elected representatives and officials. Atop the Hill there were over 500 people, a majority of them being followers of politicians. The only item missing this year was cultural troupes and folk artistes. Usually, when CM and other VIPs arrive, folk troupes would perform and welcome the guests.

The CM was accompanied by his wife Chennamma. Prema Krishna, wife of S.M. Krishna was not present during inauguration. Krishna came to Mysuru last afternoon and stayed at Hotel Radisson Blu Plaza. For today's inauguration, the former Chief Minister was dressed in a light-green kurta, a white dhoti and shalya. The 89-year-old leader had a walking stick but was firm in his steps.

It is a tradition for the Dasara invitees to bring their spouses to the festival inauguration. Krishna preferred to give this a go-by. Dr. H.V. Santhrupth, General Surgeon and Head of Gopala Gowda Shanthaveri Memorial Hospital, whose mother is a cousin of Prema Krishna, accompanied Krishna.

Former Chief Minister S.M. Krishna showering flower petals on the idol of Goddess Chamundeshwari placed inside the Silver Chariot atop Chamundi Hill this morning. Others seen are Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai, District Minister S.T. Somashekar, Mayor Sunanda Palanetra, MLA S.A. Ramdas and Temple Chief Priest Shashishekar Dixit.

Krishna calls for Mysuru-centric tourism circuit; CM responds

Mysuru, Oct. 7 (RK&BCT)- In his Dasara inaugural address, former CM S.M. Krishna urged CM Basavaraj Bommai to develop Mysuru as a key tourist destination by creating a circuit or a package for tourists.

"By Dasara-2022, a clear concept on projecting Mysuru and its tourism, focusing on Dasara can be worked out," he said requesting the CM to create a platform for tourists to experience Mysuru Dasara and also see tourist spots like Hampi, Belur, Halebeedu, Badami and Pattadakal.

"Look at Singapore as a model to develop tourism. It is very much possible to develop tourism with natural attractions available in abundance. A tourism package covering various tourist spots can be worked out," he said, recalling his association with Prime Minister of Singapore late Lee Kuan Yew.

"Mysuru is a blessed place and has everything for making the city a major tourist destination. The city needs to be made a focal tourist destination along with other tourist places in Karnataka," he suggested.

Responding positively, the CM said that the Government was mulling an international tourism circuit connecting Dasara. "Mysuru needs to be promoted and marketed, keeping Dasara in focus and tourism activities would be conceptualised on the lines of tourism-centric events at many international tourist hotspots," he said.

"Twelve more months are left for the next Dasara and I assure you that a tourism package will be implemented after discussing with the officials," Bommai said.

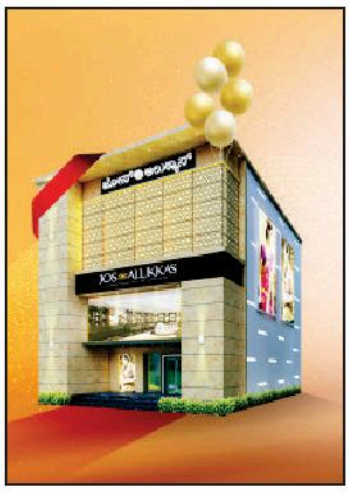
Jos Alukkas to launch
all-new showroom in Mysuru



Mysuru, Oct.7 - The renowned jewellery group Jos Alukkas will launch their all-new showroom in Mysuru on Oct.9 (Saturday).

The showroom, located opposite Woodlands theatre on B.N. Road, will be inaugurated by MP Pratap Simha.

The shop will host all-new collections of BIS 916 hallmarked gold jewellery and internationally certified diamond jewellery.

As part of the various launch offers, customers can win free gold coins on gold jewellery and diamond jewellery purchases. They can also avail themselves a 20% off on diamonds and a 7% off on platinum. In addition to these, customers can also exchange their old gold for certified jewellery with the latest designs and get assured gifts with every purchase.

The management of Jos Alukkas says that this is a great opportunity for people who are looking forward to buying jewellery this season.

N. Chandrashekar, Hon. Secretary, Sarada Vilas Educational Institutions, Mysuru, will be the guest of honour.

Dr. Hanumanthachar Joshi, Principal, Sarada Vilas College of Pharmacy, will preside over the programme.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

Perhaps, it is time to shift to a Presidential system at both State and the Union Government's level. It is better to accept the reality that Indians tend to hero-worship their leaders. Any politician who aspires to be a national leader would be forced to win the support of people across the country. He wouldn't be able to outsource communal campaigns to his Constituency-level representatives. Doing such a thing at the national level wouldn't endear him across all cross-sections of a diverse society.

He can't be elected by catering to only one geography or ethnic group at the cost of others. His challenger would also have to be of equal competence and can't depend on his family legacy. At the State-level, it would end the selling, buying and renting of elected representatives, resort democracy and thrusting new leaders as per the whim of party supremos. Democracy is vital for India, but we can't be proud of how it is practised now. It is time we should seriously think of changing to a Presidential form of Government.

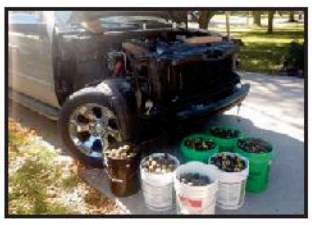
Squirrel fills vehicle with walnuts



North Dakota: A North Dakota man had to take his Chevy Avalanche pickup truck apart in order to reach the hundreds of walnuts that a busy squirrel had filled it with after he left the vehicle parked under a walnut tree.

After coming home from a four-day work trip earlier this month, Bill Fischer, an insurance salesman from Fargo, North Dakota, found his Chevy Avalanche pickup full to the brim with walnuts. Apparently, a red squirrel that hangs out in Bill's neighborhood finds the walnuts of a beautiful black walnut tree irresistible and every autumn it goes about picking up and storing them for the winter. The problem is that, for some reason, it always seems to prefer Bill's truck as storage, and this year was no different. In fact, it was worse than usual, with about 42 gallons-worth of walnuts crammed all throughout the car.

Orca living alone in tank for over 10 years

Ontario: Kiska, the last living killer whale at the Marineland marine park, has been dubbed the world's loneliest orca after it was revealed that she has spent the last 10 years of her life alone in a concrete tank, with little to no stimulation.

Orcas, dolphins, and whales are among the world's most intelligent animals; they are social creatures that require a lot of interaction and stimulation which those raised in captivity, unfortunately, don't receive enough of.

In one extreme case, a lonely orca that has spent most of her life in captivity and the last decade completely alone in a concrete tank, at a marine park in Ontario, Canada has been showing signs of extreme distress, like floating listlessly and banging her head against the sides of her enclosure. She has spent 42 years in captivity and was only three-year-old when Marineland purchased her.

Set right sign-boards in J.P. Nagar

Sir,

I am a resident of #44, 7th Cross, 17th Main, E Block, C Zone, 3rd Stage, J.P. Nagar, Mysuru, which is situated behind Sai Baba temple.

Our road and as well as surrounding one lack sign-boards. Hence it has become difficult for the public to locate the address.

In some sign-boards details are not visible and in yellow sign-boards details are not mentioned (see pictures). In our next road Kannada sign-board "Nachanahalli Kuppalur 3rd Stage" is almost broken into half.

Bus shelter built under MLA grant located opposite to Panacea Hospital has remained unused for years. It will be very helpful to the public if city buses pass through this road providing a stop at this bus shelter.

Goblimara bus shelter lacks lighting facility. Hence the passengers have to wait in dark for the buses. This is one of the prime bus shelters of the locality. There is an urgent need of providing lighting facility to this bus shelter.

On behalf of the general public, I request the City Corporation authorities and area Corporator to look into these problems and solve the same at the earliest.

Devaraja Market and Lansdowne buildings to be rebuilt: Bommai

Mysuru, Oct.7 (MK&DM)- Ending years of uncertainty over the fate of dilapidated Devaraja Market and Lansdowne buildings in Central Business District (CBD) of the city, Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai on Wednesday announced that the two buildings will be rebuilt.

He was speaking at the valedictory of the 20-day 'Modi Yug Utsav' organised by K.R. Unit of BJP at the park near Ramalingeshwara temple in Vidyaranyapuram here yesterday.

Pointing out that the over century-old Devaraja Market and Lansdowne buildings will be rebuilt shortly, Bommai said that the acquisition of land for Mandakalli Airport expansion, which issue has been raised by MP Pratap Simha, will be addressed in the next budget.

Maintaining that the ambitious Mysuru Film City project, which is yet to take off, will be revived, the CM said that the Government has sanctioned Rs.379 crore for MUDA to fully complete infrastructure development works in all Layouts developed by it.

Continuing, Bommai said that the Government has not lost momentum of its working despite the COVID crisis.

"Karnataka will be a booster for the creation of a new India. The Government will come out of the pandemic triggered economic crisis soon. Karnataka is the first State to announce scholarship for students from farmer families, which is expected to be implemented in other States as well. The Government, apart from creating infrastructure in urban areas, is also focussing on rural development and economic empowerment," he said.

Terming K.R. Constituency MLA S.A. Ramdas as a workaholic, Bommai maintained that the MLA has done a lot of work for his Constituency.

Highlighting the work of Ramdas during COVID crisis, Bommai said that the MLA has distributed over 80,000 immunity kits to the people of his Constituency which is a record of sorts.

Pointing out that Krishnaraja Constituency is one among the top achievers in COVID vaccination, he said that Ramdas, apart from doing great service to the people, even cares for birds and animals. The CM also lauded the MLA for his will power and said that other Legislators and leaders should emulate him.

District Minister S.T. Somashekar, in his address, thanked the Chief Minister for releasing Rs.6 crore for Dasara and also for sanctioning funds that helped to clear bills that were due to Contractors for the past two years.

Lauding Ramdas, Somashekar said that all other Legislators should also ensure that the benefits reached the doorsteps of targeted beneficiaries.

MLA Ramdas, in his address, said that he will try to bring Prime Minister Narendra Modi to K.R. Assembly segment next year and apprise him of the success of implementation of all Central and State Government welfare schemes and development projects.

JD(S) MLA S.R. Mahesh attends event

JD(S) MLA from K.R. Nagar S.R. Mahesh sprang a surprise by taking part in the valedictory of 'Modi Yug Utsav' that was attended by the Chief Minister.

Mahesh also wore a saffron shawl that was given to him by BJP workers.

The MLA, who walked on to the stage as soon as the programme began, requested city BJP President T.S. Srivatsa for a seat on the dais, which was duly obliged with Srivatsa himself moving to another seat.

Mahesh, who was seated next to MUDA Chairman H.V. Rajeev, drew the attention of CM Bommai, who said that Mahesh is on the other side, though he should have been with the BJP, adding that Mahesh is also part of the Government though he actually does not belong to it.

Calling the K.R. Nagar MLA as 'Maheshanna' out of fondness, the CM also jokingly questioned Mahesh whether JD(S) supremo H.D. Deve Gowda will have no exception for his participation in the BJP event.

S.R. Mahesh, expressing gratitude to the CM, showed the birthday greeting which he had written to Prime Minister Narendra Modi, before putting it to the Post Box.

On the occasion, Bommai also released a book on the 20-day 'Modi Yug Utsav' event and handed over 7.5 acres of land belonging to MUDA to the MCC for setting up a care centre for stray dogs.

Urban Development Minister Byrathi Basavaraj, Mayor Sunanda Palanetra, MLAs L. Nagendra and C.S. Niranjan Kumar, KEA Chairman Hemanth Kumar Gowda, BJP leader M. Vadivelu, Deputy Commissioner Dr. Bagadi Gautham and other officials were present at the event.

CM launches installation of LED bulbs for street-lights

Mysuru, Oct.7 (MK&DM)- Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai yesterday launched the installation of LED bulbs for street-lights by pressing a remote control button for the lights along Albert Victor road near Kote Anjaneyaswamy temple at the Palace North Gate.

The project is aimed at replacing traditional street-light bulbs with power saving LED bulbs in city.

With the installation of LED bulbs, the MCC hopes to save 58.77 percent of power consumption while also saving Rs.8.9 crore on annual power bills.

District Minister S.T. Somashekar, Urban Development Minister Byrathi Basavaraj, MLAs S.A.Ramdas and L. Nagendra, KEA Chairman Hemanth Kumar Gowda, Mayor Sunanda Palanetra, former Mayor Sandesh Swamy and others were present.

Breaking the 'jinx': CM arrives at Ch'nagar

Chamarajanagar, Oct.7 (SS&DM)- Breaking the jinx that Chief Ministers of the State, who visit Chamarajanagar would lose their post soon afterwards, Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai visited the southern-most district of the State to a rousing reception from BJP leaders.

Bommai, who arrived by road from Mysuru at 1 pm, was given a warm welcome at the entrance to the town from Nanjangud side. Though party workers had arrived at the spot to welcome the CM with bouquets and garlands, the CM, who got out of the car for just about three minutes, received the bouquets from hardly a couple of party workers, before leaving for Yedabetta on Gundlupet road, where he is scheduled to receive the President of India, Ram Nath Kovind, who is arriving in the town for the inauguration of the newly built 450-bed Teaching Hospital attached to Government-run Chamarajanagar Institute of Medical Sciences, in which the CM will also take part.

The CM, during his brief halt in the town, did not speak to mediapersons, as he was apparently in a hurry to receive the President at the helipad in the outskirts of the town at about 1.30 pm.

The CM was welcomed by Gundlupet MLA C.S. Niranjan Kumar, former MLA Parimala Nagappa, former MLC Prof. K.R. Mallikarjunappa, District BJP President Sundar, party leaders M. Ramachandra, Nagashri Pratap, Nijaguna Raju, Vrishabendrappa and a host of other leaders.

It may be mentioned here that the previous Chief Minister B.S. Yediyurappa did not visit the town during his two-year tenure, though he had many opportunities, due to fear of the jinx. In the past, H.D. Kumaraswamy, Jagadish Shettar and Siddharamaiah, all ex-CMs, had visited the 'jinxed' Chamarajanagar town.

BJP announces candidates for Assembly by-polls

New Delhi, Oct. 7- Ending the suspense over the choice of party candidates, BJP Central leadership this morning announced the names of party candidates for Hanagal and Sindagi Assembly by-polls in Karnataka.

The party has named Shivaraj Sajjan, a former MLC, as the candidate for Hanagal Assembly segment in Haveri district and Ramesh Bhoosanur, a former MLA, for Sindagi Assembly segment in Vijayapura.

The by-polls for both the seats will take place on Oct. 30 and the counting of votes will be taken up on Nov. 2.

The Hanagal by-poll was necessitated by the death of senior party Legislator C.M. Udasi and Sindagi by-poll due to the demise of veteran JD(S) MLA M.C. Managuli. The by-poll is the first acid test for Bommai after he took over as the CM in July last.

LPG cylinder prices hiked by Rs. 15

New Delhi, Oct.7- In yet another blow to the common man, who is already reeling under soaring prices of essential commodities, the Oil-Marketing Companies (OMCs) yesterday, hiked Domestic LPG Cylinder prices by Rs. 15 a cylinder with immediate effect. This is the fourth time that OMCs have increased domestic LPG cooking gas cylinders in two months. Following the upward revision, the price of non-subsidised 14.2-kg LPG cylinder stands at almost Rs. 900 while that of a 5.2-kg cylinder costs Rs. 502. Only on Oct. 1, the OMCs had hiked the commercial cylinder price by Rs. 43.50.

Private Durbar begins at Mysore Palace

Mysuru, Oct. 7 (MTY&AK)- The Khas Durbar (Private Durbar), which marks the beginning of Dasara festivities, began this morning at Mysore Palace with the titular head of Mysore royal family Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar ascending the Golden Throne between 11.45 am and 12.15 pm at the magnificent Durbar Hall.

The rituals began as early as 4.30 am with oil bath to Yaduveer. Between 6-6.11 am (Kanya Lagna), Lion's heads were fixed on the Golden Throne. Golden Throne (Simhasana) and Bhadrasana (Silver Throne) were assembled on Oct. 1. While Simhasana is kept at Durbar Hall, Bhadrasana is kept at Kannadi Thotti.

Kankana was tied to Yaduveer between 7.45-8.45 am (Tula Lagna). According to tradition, once Kankana is tied, his movements are restricted to Palace for ten days. The rituals continued at Kodi Someshwara Temple where Pattada Aane Dhananjaya, Salaane Gopalaswamy, Pattada Kudure, Pattada Hasu and Pattada Onte were all brought in, followed by a group of married women (Sumangalis) carrying Kalashas, between 10 am and 10.45 am. Then they were taken to Savara Thotti where puja was performed to Yaduveer and Pattada Aane, Kudure, Hasu and Onte blessed him.

The Kalashas were taken to the Durbar Hall and some more rituals performed. Yaduveer ascended the throne between 11.45 am and 12.15 pm. Before that as he walked up to the throne followed by the Durbaris on either side in the Durbar Hall, the cries of 'Bahu Parak' rent the air.

Yaduveer, before ascending, circumambulated the throne three times. Soon, the Priests from different temples offered Prasadam to Yaduveer. He stood in attention before sitting on the throne to the tunes of the Palace Anthem 'Kayo Sri Gauri,' played by Police Band. They also played a few compositions of Jayachamaraja Wadiyar.

Due to COVID-19, entry inside the Palace was restricted and even there was a restriction imposed for the members of royal family. Yaduveer's wife Trishikha Kumari Wadiyar, his mother Pramoda Devi Wadiyar, son Aadyaveer Narasimharaja Wadiyar were present at the Durbar Hall. Private Durbar ended at 12.45 pm.

Beginning his speech by reciting a Sanskrit Shloka propitiating Goddess Chamundeshwari, the former CM Krishna said that it was his good fortune to be inaugurating Dasara and only the Goddess can rid the Nation of COVID.

Remembering his association with Mysuru during his school days, he said "I have grown up seeing Dasara during the time of Sir M. Visvesvaraya and Sir Mirza Ismail."

"I have a close bond with Mysuru, as I completed my studies in city. I used to walk up to Chamundi Hill and pray to the Goddess," he recalled, citing Dasara music concerts by eminent musicians and the famous wrestling bouts during the festivities. He remembered the contribution of Wadiyars and Dewans of Mysuru who made the region prosperous and also brought to fore the special relationship of people with the rulers.

In his address, CM Basavaraj Bommai praised Krishna for spearheading development in Karnataka. "Because of the foundations laid by Krishna we have achieved a revolution in Information Technology and Biotechnology. At a time when computers were new to India, Krishna, through his vision and farsightedness, laid a red carpet to IT companies to make their homes in Bengaluru. The result was astonishing as Bengaluru developed in leaps and bounds," Bommai said.

MP Pratap Simha said Krishna was the right choice of dignitary to inaugurate the Dasara festivities as his contributions to Karnataka and its development are immense.

MLA G.T. Devegowda presided. Ministers S.T. Somashekar, R. Ashoka, Byrathi Basavaraj, Shivaram Hebbar, K.C. Narayanagowda, B.C. Patil, V. Sunil Kumar, Shashikala Jolle, Mayor Sunanda Palanetra, MLAs S.A. Ramdas, B. Harshavardhan, Arvind Bellad, Tanveer Sait, L. Nagendra, MLC K.T. Srikantegowda, MUDA Chairman H.V. Rajeev, Dy. Commissioner Dr. Bagadi Gautham, SP R. Chethan and Chairmen of all Boards and Corporations were present.

When CM gestured to his wife from stage...

SP inadvertently wears shoes inside Chamundi Temple; runs back to remove it

Mysuru, Oct. 7 (RK&BCT)- As soon as Dasara State guest former CM S.M. Krishna and Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai walked on to the dais to do the honours of inauguration accompanied by a large number of Ministers and elected representatives, CM's wife Chennamma too followed them.

Looking confused about the protocol to be followed on the stage, she glanced at her husband who gestured to her to be seated below the stage. She obeyed and sat in the front row.

Seeing this, Mysuru Deputy Commissioner Dr. Bagadi Gautham and other officials went to the CM's wife and urged her to get on to the dais. Even as Chennamma hesitated, they told her that it would not be a violation of protocol and she agreed to climb the stage.

Though the number of people was limited to 400, the Chamundi Hill saw a crowd of more than 500 people and as soon as the CM and guests arrived, there was a flurry of activities with officials running behind their political bosses.

In the confusion and eager to get inside the Chamundeshwari Temple, Mysuru SP R. Chethan missed removing his Police shoes while entering the Temple. He further went a few steps from the entrance following the VVIPs but was alerted by one of his subordinate staff. Taken aback by this sudden development, the SP realised his mistake and ran back to the entrance to remove the shoes.

Warm welcome to S.M. Krishna

On behalf of Sri Ganapathy Sachchidananda Ashram, Dr. N. Nithyanand Rao, Trustee and Siddartha, Public Relation Officer, accorded a warm welcome to former CM S.M. Krishna, who is in Mysuru to inaugurate Dasara-2021 festivities. Krishna was felicitated with a shawl and a garland at Hotel Radisson Blu Plaza this morning. S.M. Krishna Abhimanigala Balaga, Mysuru, President Vikrant P. Devegowda, is also seen.

Dr. Manik Bengeri honoured with postal stamp souvenir

Mysuru-based writer Dr. Manik A.V. Bengeri, who was the chief guest at the valedictory of Hindi Fortnight organised by Official Language (OL) Department, Chief Postmaster General's Office, Bengaluru, being felicitated by (from left) Mohan Choudhary, AD (OL), Sharda Sampath, Chief Postmaster General (CPMG), Karnataka Circle and K. Raveendran, Director of Postal Services (HQ), O/o CPMG, Karnataka Circle.

Mysuru, Oct. 7- Can there be a better souvenir for keepsake than personalised sheets of Postage Stamps of India Post with your own photo?

Mysuru-based veteran Hindustani singer, art critic and writer Dr. Manik A.V. Bengeri was in for a surprise when she received a set of stamps printed with her photo as a memento at the valedictory function of the Hindi Fortnight celebrations organised by Chief Postmaster General's Office, Official Language Department, Bengaluru, where she was invited as the chief guest.

The Central Government Offices celebrate Official Language Month or a Fortnight or a Week along with several competitions in the month of September. Similarly, the Chief Postmaster General's Office too celebrated Hindi Fortnight under the guidance of Mohan Choudhary, AD(OL), O/o CPMG, Karnataka Circle, from Sept.14 to 28 with support from Chief Postmaster General (CPMG) Sharda Sampath.

Dr. Manik Bengeri read out her poem in Hindi, wishing a peaceful living for all and also distributed prizes to the winners of various contests along with other dignitaries.

Sharda Sampath honoured the chief guest with a shawl, sandalwood garland, a flower pot and memento of stamps. The valedictory coincided with the inauguration of a mini auditorium.

Sharda Sampath, in her keynote address, stressed on the importance of Official Language as a link language. She recalled that Dr. Manik Bengeri had conducted Hindi workshops in the Office of Superintendent of Posts, Yadavagiri and also at the Postal Training Centre (PTC) in Nazarbad, Mysuru, three decades ago when she (Sharda) was the Director (Principal) of PTC and Sampath Kumar was Superintendent of Yadavagiri Post Office.

Hemamalini rendered the invocation. Sandesh Mahadevappa, APMG, welcomed. The report of the Fortnight was presented by Mohan Choudhary. Deepika Choudhary compered.

President Kovind makes brief stopover in Mysuru

President Ram Nath Kovind, who made a brief stopover at Mysore Airport in Mandakalli this morning, being greeted by Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai as Governor Thaawarchand Gehlot looks on. District Minister S.T. Somashekar and Mayor Sunanda Palanetra were also present to receive the VVIP. The President left the airport in a chopper to B.R. Hills. Kovind was scheduled to inaugurate the 450-bed Super Speciality Hospital at Chamarajanagar later in the afternoon.

CM couple, 5 Ministers perform puja at KRS Dam

'Sankalpa' made for good rains in catchment areas for the Reservoir to reach maximum level

Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai and his wife Chennamma seen with the CM's Cabinet colleagues at KRS this morning.

Srirangapatna, Oct. 7 (Vinay Karekura&BCT)- In the light of the Cauvery Water Management Authority (CWMA) asking Karnataka to make good in September the shortfall in the realisation of Cauvery water by Tamil Nadu and in the wake of falling water levels in Krishna Raja Sagar (KRS) Dam in Mandya, a special puja was performed by Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai to the Statue of Goddess Cauvery early this morning.

The CM and his wife Chennamma arrived in KRS last night from Mysuru and they stayed at Hotel Royal Orchid Brindavan overnight. Along with the CM, his Cabinet colleagues R. Ashoka, Byrathi Basavaraj, B.C. Patil, V. Sunil Kumar & K.C. Narayanagowda, MLA Arvind Bellad too arrived at the hotel and had a team dinner.

Early this morning the CM came to the Dam dressed in a light khadi shirt, dhoti and shalya. They reached the puja venue for Purnahuti and performed the rituals.

Karnataka has released Cauvery river water in June-September and it has gone below the 100-thousand million cubic feet (tmcft) mark. Tamil Nadu has received about 91.47 tmcft, against the stipulated 123.14 tmcft, leaving a shortfall of CM along with others performing Purnahuti rituals at KRS.

31.67 tmcft. This was raised by TN authorities at the last CWMA meeting. According to the Karnataka State Natural Disaster Monitoring Centre, districts of Chikkamagaluru, Hassan and Kodagu, comprising the Cauvery catchment areas, have received below normal rainfall this year.

This year, the Cauvery catchments had recorded around 25 percent deficit in rainfall where the realisation by four reservoirs (KRS, Kabini, Hemavathi and Harangi) was less by 23 percent to 24 percent. Water level at KRS now stands at 114.44 ft as against the maximum level of 124.80 ft while Kabini stands at 2,280.02 ft with a maximum level of 2,284.00 ft. Water level in Harangi stands at 2,858.03 ft as against the maximum level of 2,859.00 ft.

According to noted Astrologer and Vedic Scholar Dr. Bhanuprakash Sharma, who performed the rituals today, the CM and Ministers prayed for all the Dams in Karnataka to be full to meet the water demands. "Today is the beginning of Sharannavarathri and the puja rituals began at 4.30 am in auspicious Bramhi Muhurtha. Well-being of the land and its people were prayed for and a sankalpa was made for the KRS Dam to reach its maximum level," he said.

The rituals included Parjanya Japa, Parjanya Homa, Ganapathi Homa, Punyaha, Kalasha Sthapana and Purnahuti. After the rituals, the CM left for Chamundi Hill in Mysuru to participate in Dasara inauguration.

Additional 1,000 Police from outside deployed for Mysuru Dasara security

Mysuru, Oct. 7 (RK&KS)- An additional 1,000 Police personnel including 30 Inspectors and Sub-Inspectors from various Police Stations in Bengaluru Central Zone have been deployed for Dasara security in city, said City Police Commissioner Dr. Chandragupta.

The additional Police force, which arrived yesterday night, have been provided shelter at community halls, kalyana mantaps and hostels in Lashkar, Mandi, Devaraja and V.V. Puram Police limits and food is being supplied by the Police unit, the Top Cop added.

Continuing, Dr. Chandragupta said that out of 3,000 Police staff in city, 2,000 staff will be deployed for Dasara bandobast duty during Dasara inauguration at Chamundi Hill, cultural programmes at Mysore Palace premises, entry gates of Palace and to man traffic on prominent roads, circles and junctions that witness heavy traffic.

Pointing out that there is a need to control vehicular movement and people coming to view illumination on city roads to ensure smooth flow of traffic, the Top Cop said that as VIPs and VVIPs would arrive to witness Jumboo Savari on Vijayadashami Day, additional Police force will be deployed at all entrance gates and inside the Palace premises for security.

Court directs filing of criminal case against former MLC G. Madhusudan

Mysuru, Oct. 7- A City Court has directed the Police to file a criminal case against former BJP MLC G. Madhusudan in a private case filed by former University of Mysore and KSOU Vice-Chancellor Prof. K.S. Rangappa.

Madhusudan

Rangappa

Prof. K.S. Rangappa, in his private complaint to the Court, had alleged that ex-MLC G. Madhusudan had levelled baseless allegations against him (Rangappa) during the Indian Science Congress Convention in 2020, when he was then the General President of the Indian Science Congress.

Maintaining that Prime Minister Narendra Modi had attended the event which was held in Bengaluru, Prof. Rangappa said that Madhusudan had targeted him with an intention to defame him and to prevent his participation in the 107th Indian Science Congress in Bengaluru.

Accusing Madhusudan, who was also a former member of the Administrative Council of KSOU, of misusing his powers and filing a false complaint at Jayalakshmipuram Police Station based on Justice Bhaktavatsalam Report, which case was later quashed by the Court, Prof. Rangappa , in his Court complaint, had charged the former MLC of issuing repeated statements that hurt his reputation, despite a Civil Court restraint order.

The Third JMFC Court at Mysuru, which heard Prof. Rangappa's private complaint, directed the Police to register a criminal case against the accused for the offence under Sections 499, 500 and 501 of IPC and to issue a summons to the accused G.Madhusudan.

Meanwhile, ex-MLC G. Madhusudan, reacting to the Court order, said that he welcomes the Court verdict. Speaking to Star of Mysore, Madhusudan said that the Court has issued the direction based only on the statement of Prof. K.S. Rangappa.

Contending that the Court has only directed for a case against him, Madhsudhan said that the Court has not declared him as a convict.

Arguing that Prof. Rangappa's claims will come under scrutiny when the Court begins hearing in the case, he asserted that he was ready to prove the charges he had made against Prof. Rangappa, along with supporting documents. The Court direction has given him an opportunity to expose Prof. Rangappa, he maintained.

Rape, murder of minor girl student

Court sentences two labourers from West Bengal to 20 years jail

Madikeri, Oct. 7 (KS)- The Virajpet Second Additional District and Sessions Court has sentenced two labourers from West Bengal to 20 years rigorous imprisonment and has imposed a fine of Rs. 1.90 lakh after the Court found them guilty of kidnap, rape and murder of a minor girl student.

Those convicted are 21-year-old Ranjith Ekka and 30-year-old Sandeep Orion, both from West Bengal, who were working as labourers and staying in workers quarters at a coffee estate in Karadigodu, Siddapura.

The case: On Feb. 4, 2019, the girl student, who was residing in workers quarters at a coffee estate in Karadigodu, left for college in the morning. As she did not come back even late in the evening, her parents had lodged a missing complaint on Feb. 5 at Siddapura Police Station.

Police, who took up investigation, took Ranjith and Sandeep, who were working as watchmen at the estate and interrogated them, during which they revealed that they had kidnapped and raped the girl and later strangled her using a rope. They also stated that they had buried the body.

Madikeri Dy.SP K.S. Sundarraj and team, which conducted investigation, had submitted a charge-sheet to the Court on May 3, 2019. The Virajpet Second Additional District and Sessions Court Judge, who took up the case, heard the arguments from both sides and found Ranjith and Sandeep guilty of the crime and sentenced both of them to 20 years rigorous imprisonment besides imposing a fine of Rs. 1.90 lakh. The Court has ordered Rs. 1.80 lakh of the fine amount be given to the victim's family and Rs. 10,000 to the Court. Public Prosecutor Yasin Ahmed argued on behalf of the Government.

Mysuru engineer conned in the guise of Minister's PA

Two arrested, three others absconding

Shivamogga, Oct. 7 (KS)- Shivamogga Cyber Crime, Economic Offences & Narcotics (CEN) Police have arrested two persons, who had conned a Mysuru Civil Engineer and a Contractor from Sagar taluk to the tune of about Rs. 36 lakh. The arrested persons along with others had cheated the two in the guise of Minister K.S. Eshwarappa's Personal Assistants (PAs).

Those arrested are Khajivalis and Vittal Rao of Shivamogga and those who were conned are Mysuru Civil Engineer C. Rajesh and Contractor B. Lakshman of Barur Muttalbail in Sagar taluk. Rajesh and Lakshman had lodged separate complaints against Mohammed Rehman of Mangaluru. Vittal Rao, Manjunath and Khajivalis and Mohammed Mufasir of Arasikere in Hassan district with the CEN Police.

According to the complaint, the five conmen, who met Rajesh, told him that they would get him Rs. 100 crore loan to undertake a villa project and had taken Rs. 10 lakh from him in February, 2020. But when Rajesh realised that he has been cheated after he was made to run here and there, asked them to return his money only to be threatened with life by them. Meanwhile, Contractor Lakshman, in his complaint, has stated that the miscreants had taken Rs. 26.25 lakh from him in July, 2019, saying that would get him the tender of installing pure drinking water units across Bengaluru and had cheated him.

The CEN Police, who took up the investigation, arrested Vittal Rao and Khajivalis and have launched a hunt to nab others, who are absconding.

Petty quarrel ends with murder

Nanjangud, Oct. 7 (RS&KS)- A quarrel over petty reason between two persons, ended with a murder of one of them at Geekahalli village in Nanjangud taluk yesterday. The murder victim has been identified as Madhukumar (31), son of late Kempanna of the village and the accused is Raju, also of the same village, who is now in Police custody.

Madhukumar, who was residing with his wife Shilpa, mother Gowramma and two daughters in a rented house at Kadakola, had come to Geekahalli along with his family on Tuesday following 'Pitrupaksha.' Yesterday, when he was sitting in front of his house, Raju is said to have picked up a quarrel and reportedly abused him using foul language. But when Madhukumar went to Raju's house to question about it, Raju is said to have assaulted Madhukumar with a wooden log, resulting in Madhukumar sustaining serious injuries on his head. Madhukumar's family members, who rushed to the spot, shifted him to Nanjangud Taluk Hospital, where he was provided first-aid and was later shifted to K.R. Hospital in Mysuru, but he had breathed his last mid way, it is learnt.

The Police have taken accused Raju into their custody and a case has been registered at Biligere Police Station.
